

Writing - Narrative | Sample Answer

Imagine that one of the following two pictures shows a character from a story that you are writing. In your story, the character is not all that he or she appears to be. Write a descriptive passage that introduces your character to readers. Choose one picture only. (Question 6, 2018)

As Luke rode his final wave in for the day, he waved at his neighbour George "What are you doing out here?" Luke asked, "I thought you were going for that new manager position." George did not reply but merely waved Luke back to his car with a stone-cold expression.

"I've found the woman with the video, but she refuses to not post it unless we give her a large sum of money." George sighed "No Jack, because then she'll know that we initially did the police work to find the woman and we've been banned from doing that since we've been sent to Croatia" Luke looked out the window for a while before sitting up as if struck by lightning "You know Captain, what if we let her post that video of us on YouTube." George looked confused as Luke continued on "I mean all the leads the Marshall comes up with never pan out, why don't we learn Johnson here to Florida. Look at it this way, we both miss home, and I know for a fact that we are both fed up with living in this witness protection program. So, what'd you say?"
